Dear Mr Anderson:

I am back in Newark, and found everything OK. After going over my trip and making plans for the training, I decided to write you and ask you to hold up on arranging anything for Easter Sunday for a couple weeks.

Easter Sunday is usually a good day to play a game, and a team of course wants to get the best spot they can. I have been negotiating for another spot, but it may be the best place for me to play that day would be the city where we are training.

I promise to let you know definitely one way or the other by the middle of ~~February~~ very possibly before. This would give us over ~~two~~ months to work on it.

Please drop me a line and let me know if you will hold this date, as I would not want to plan on it and be dissappointed. We are definitely planning to open camp April 1st.

Very Truly Yours
